PROSIEBENSAT.1 MEDIA SE ON THE CAPITAL MARKET

In 2024, the major listed companies recorded a positive trend that contrasted with the mixed performance of the stock market as a whole. An upward trend began at the beginning of the year, supported by good company figures, falling inflation rates and the expected interest rate cuts by the European Central Bank. Innovations in the field of artificial intelligence, driven in particular by the large technology companies, also contributed to the positive development. In spring, however, the upturn was dampened by geopolitical tensions, among other things. In the second half of the year, weak economic data from Germany and Europe as well as disappointing labor market figures from the US put further pressure on the stock markets.

Volatility was intensified towards the end of the year by the elections in the US and the upcoming new elections in Germany. Concerns about a possible return to the "America First" policy and increasing economic uncertainty in Europe weighed on the markets. Nevertheless, the DAX recovered and exceeded the 20,000-point mark for the first time at the beginning of December. In contrast, the corporate results of the companies listed on the MDAX and SDAX and, as a result, their share prices were significantly weaker than those of the DAX companies. This was mainly due to the fact that, compared to the DAX companies, they generated a significantly lower proportion of their revenue and earnings abroad, and thus the weak economic trend in Germany had a greater impact on the business development of mid- and small-caps.

On the last day of trading, the DAX closed at 19,909.14 points, up 18.8% on the end of the previous year. The SDAX, which also includes the share of ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE, ended the trading year down 1.8% at 13,711.33 points. The Stoxx Media Index, which includes other media stocks in addition to TV companies, stood at 368.52 points, up 12.5% compared to the end of 2023.

While the DAX reached new highs several times in 2024, the small-cap indices MDAX and SDAX performed weaker. In this environment, the ProSiebenSat.1 share was very volatile, but outperformed the benchmark indices in the first months of the year: Better-than-expected company figures in the first quarter of 2024 strengthened the share price, which reached its high for the year in April. In the weeks that followed, however, political and macroeconomic uncertainties weighed heavily on the share price. At the end of 2024, the ProSiebenSat.1 share recovered, partly due to speculation about a possible takeover by MFE-MEDIAFOREUROPE N.V., Amsterdam, Netherlands ("MFE"), and closed at EUR 4.96 (December 31, 2023: EUR 5.53).

The analysts' average price target (median) at the end of 2024 was EUR 6.50. 14 brokerage houses and financial institutions actively covered the ProSiebenSat.1 share and published research reports. 43% of analysts recommended the ProSiebenSat.1 share as a buy, while 50% were in favor of holding the share and 7% gave a sell recommendation.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR 2023

The Annual General Meeting of ProSiebenSat.1 Media SE for the financial year 2023 was held in virtual form on April 30, 2024. This means that the shareholders entitled to attend and their proxies were able to follow the Annual General Meeting live and in full length in video and audio on the online shareholder portal. The participants were able to exercise their rights in virtual form in the same way as at a physical event: The shareholders or their proxies who were connected to the meeting were able to register their speech via a virtual registration table and made their contributions and asked questions live. A total of around 80 questions were received, which were answered by the Executive Board and Supervisory Board. 63.5% of the share capital was represented at the Annual General Meeting.

→ Significant Events

The Annual General Meeting resolved to distribute a dividend of EUR 0.05 per share to the dividend-entitled holders for the financial year 2023 (previous year: EUR 0.05). The dividend was paid on May 6, 2024.

In addition, the Annual General Meeting included, in particular, elections for three Supervisory Board seats. Klára Brachtlová, who had already been a court-appointed member of the Supervisory Board since October 16, 2023, was confirmed by the Annual General Meeting. The Boards' proposed new appointments to the Supervisory Board to replace Marjorie Kaplan and Ketan Mehta, whose terms of office expire, by re-electing Marjorie Kaplan and electing Pim Schmitz did not receive the required majority at the Annual General Meeting. Instead, Christoph Mainusch and Leopoldo Attolico were elected to the Supervisory Board. Christoph Mainusch was elected on the basis of an election proposal by PPF and Leopoldo Attolico was elected on the basis of an election proposal by MFE. Prof. Moreover, Dr. Rolf Nonnenmacher, member of the Supervisory Board and Chairman of the Audit and Finance Committee, was replaced by Simone Scettri as a result of a request for an addition to the agenda by MFE. Prof. Dr. Rolf Nonnenmacher, Marjorie Kaplan and Ketan Mehta have therefore no longer been members of the Supervisory Board since the end of the Annual General Meeting on April 30, 2024.

The Annual General Meeting also approved MFE's request for amendments to the Articles of Association with regard to certain transactions of the Executive Board requiring approval and the cancellation of Authorized Capital 2021 with the required simple majority. However, the required qualified majority of 75% of the share capital represented at the adoption of the resolution was not achieved with regard to MFE's request to create new Authorized Capital 2024 and to prepare the spin-off of the parts of the Company not belonging to the Entertainment segment (Commerce & Ventures and Dating & Video segments),.

The proposals of the Executive Board and Supervisory Board for an internal reorganization of Joyn GmbH also did not receive the required qualified majority of 75% of the share capital represented at the adoption of the resolution.

Also on the agenda were the individual discharges of the Supervisory Board members for the financial year 2023. With the exception of Prof. Dr. Rolf Nonnenmacher, all members of the Supervisory Board were discharged. In addition, the resolution on the discharge of the Executive Board members Ralf Peter Gierig and Christine Scheffler in office in the financial years 2022 and 2023, and on the discharge of the Executive Board member Rainer Beaujean in office in the financial year 2022, for their respective activities in the financial years 2022 and 2023 was postponed to the Annual General Meeting of the Company in the financial year 2025; the other members of the Executive Board were granted discharge for their activities in the financial years 2022 and 2023. All other proposed resolutions were approved by the Annual General Meeting with a clear majority.
